GARDNER-WEBB COLLEGE

VOLUME I

BOILING SPRINGS, N. C., DECEMBER 1967

NUMBER 3

Weavings....

Last year with a new stadium to dedicate and Governor Dan Moore on hand to help out, we had a huge Homecoming crowd. Many stated that this was unusual and not to expect the same in a normal year. Happily they were wrong.

... Around 4,000 watched Gardner-Webb lose a basketball 10-7 to nationally ranked Louisiana State.

... Over 300 enjoyed the Alumni barbecue.

... The basketball dedication program for three new residence halls filled the cafeteria.

... The weather man said rain. . . . But rain just couldn't let it happen and must have used their connections to bring about the beautiful, sunny day.

... Dorm decorations, a lovely Homecoming Queen, bands, friends meeting friends, a look at the newly-rededicated basketball gym and some chuckles with Chicago White Sox player Brockton Rogers made it a wonderful day.

... The freshmen girls won a rugged 2-0 powder puff victory before a crowd of 500 in Spangler Memorial Stadium.

... An All American baseball player changed costumes and found success as a make-believe girl. Mirk Sink of Asheville won Homecoming Queen for the powder puff game and Phil Robbins, a fine baseball pitcher was first runner-up.

... Lata-Yelton Residence Hall then won the Decoratum Contest during Homecoming with Decker Hall and Stroup Hall getting honorable mention.

... Phi Theta Kappa, honorary academic society on campus, had an impressive induction ceremony recently.

... THE SPELLING BEE, a play for children written by C. Robert Jones, head of the Drama Department, was staged November 17-18 at the college. This was a World Premiere for the play. Jones has also written THE CLOWN.

WSPATV of Spangenberg, S. C., impressed with the play, will televise it in color. If interested, watch for future announcements in your newspaper relative to the tentative dates of Dec. 31, Jan. 3 or Jan. 10 for the showing.

CHRISTMAS 1967 — Since this is our December issue, we must take advantage of the occasion to wish for each of you (and your families) a joyous Holiday Season. May it be a safe period with satisfying relationships as we sure again remember Him who makes such blessings possible.

WHY WAIT 'TIL '68

Our first ANNUAL FUND program will be in 1968 (beginning August 1). We will organize so as to contact every alumnus of Gardner-Webb College for support. But why wait until then? Well over 350 (and more daily) did not wait. You will feel a sense of satisfaction as you have a part in helping an institution which has helped you so!

Mention was made concerning class agents (scribes) being listed in the December issue of "The Web". Inadvertent space prevents this. Write us all the news. We'll share it with the representative of your class.

One More To The List, Please

As you address your friends and loved ones at Christmas, why not remember GARDNER-WEBB, one you love dearly? And express your gratitude to her in a tangible way in the same spirit that you express love to your parents who have contributed so much to your well being. We would like to hear from you if it is nothing but a "hello". We will at least know you receive our mailings, that you read some of what we send and that you care for our cause.

..... HOMECOMING 1967.....

Homecoming is a unique experience to each of us. In 1967, we feel it was truly a successful, well attended series of events which brought back to many fresh memories of the outstanding job being done by the college.

Each year, as the college grows in size and influence, brings an ever increasing number of returning alumni and friends to take part in the luncheon, alumni barbecue, the Homecoming football game and many other events like the basketball scrimmage, Friday evening Student Union concerts, etc.

We hope your visit to the campus was an enjoyable one and that it will influence you to return again and again to the place where your higher education was initiated.

Now take a clockwise journey

Three new residence halls were dedicated Tuesday, Oct. 24 before the student body. The A. G. Myers, Moseley and C. F. and Irene Nancey residence hall were presented to the college (presented by President Patton) by, left to right, C. F. Nancey, Mrs. C. F. Nancey, A. G. Myers, Jr. and Charles Moseley.

Gardner-Webb makes it bigger—and you make Gardner-Webb bigger. This is the spirit of Gardner-Webb.

Buildags scored their 100 TD in tough 10-7 loss to Leno-McRae

Miss Wanda Kiser was crowned Homecoming Queen for 1967.

Bulldog Club members honored Dr. Eugene Patton for his support by giving him a lounge chair. John Neff, president of the club, is shown with Dr. Patton.

It just remains to be seen just how large our web will grow, but this much we know, once you're woven in, we never let you go. This is the spirit of Gardner-Webb.

ney with us to observe some of the events.

Great Building at Massey Hall was impressive.

Powder Puff game participants cheered teammates on as the game progressed Thursday night.

Friday evening was a swinging success with The Platters.

Nine Pines, as events got underway Saturday.

The Alumni Officers and others conceived business Saturday morning before entering into festivities.

Smokey Burgess kept Alumni Barbecue participants laughing at many major league baseball oddities.

Uninvited shut out was the highly regarded basketball unit.

The dedication luncheon entertainment was "How The West Was Won" by the college choir.
